BRIEF ABSTRACT OF LETTER.

Submits resolution enhancing the President's powers to make payments upto Rs 2000/ under Regulation I.V of 1917.

NOTES AND ORDERS.

Regulation I.V of 1917 authorising payment by the President upto a sum not exceeding Rs. 1000/- was passed on the analogy of the British Indian S.B. Act

NOTES—First Sheet.

1) In the case of Provident fund and Savings Bank, the limit is fixed at Rs. 1000/- (Vide Regulation IX of 1917 & Act V of 1873 as amended by Regulation II of 1911). For orders

R. V. S. 1933

2) There is no doubt that the Committee's proposal if sanctioned will help certain families in as much as they would be saved the hardship and expense in obtaining an heir-ship certificate. Apparently many cases of death claims involving amounts exceeding Rs. 1000/- but less tha Rs. 2000/- have been held up for want of heirship certificates There is no information furnished on this point.

3) The rules provide for nomination by the Insured with a view of enabling the bonus amount being paid to the nominees in the event of death of the Insured before the claim matures without their being required to undergo any expense.

And if as it should be this privilege is largely availed of by the Policy Holders, the cases where relief might be very necessary ~~if~~ raising the limit would be perhaps few. ~~Besides if the limit be raised in the case of the Insurance bonus, it stands to reason that a similar treatment should be accorded in respect of Provident Fund amounts if not of Savings Bank Deposits also.~~

4) The question of the loss to Government in the matter of court fees, if a succession certificate is not to be required in respect of payment

Subject:-

Bill to amend the Mysore State Life Insurance Regulation, 1917.

G 28) Under Section 3 of the Mysore State Life Insurance Regulation, 1917, the President of the Insurance Committee is given the discretion to pay bonuses up to a limit of Rs.1,000/- without the production of a

B. succession certificate. The Insurance Committee have now resolved that it is desirable to raise the said limit to Rs.2,000.

29) 2. The suggested alteration will help a larger number of families in-as-much as they will be saved the hardship and expense in obtaining succession certificates. The proposal is further supported by the analogy of the Law in force in British India in regard to the payment of sums subscribed to the Provident Funds.

F 30) A Bill has accordingly been prepared to give effect to the Committee's recommendation. The Dewan and the other members of Council have approved of the Bill.

Bill to amend the Mysore State Life Insurance Regulation 1917.

Whereas it is expedient to amend the Mysore State Life Insurance Regulation, 1917: His Highness the Maharaja is pleased to enact as follows:-

Amendment of Section 3. In Section 3 of the Regulation for the figure 'Rs.1,000/-" the figure "Rs.2000/-" shall be substituted.

ACH.2.

~~Revised~~ Statement of Objects and Reasons

Under Regulation IV of 1917 the President of the State Life Insurance Committee is authorised to disburse to such person as he finds entitled after reasonable enquiry the bonus due to the estate of a deceased policy-holder without the production of a succession certificate, probate or letters of administration when the amount payable does not exceed Rs.1000/-. as the insured in such cases are generally poor and the expense and delay of obtaining a certificate of heirship from a Court of Law would involve great hardship to their dependants. The Insurance Committee have recommended that this concession may be extended to the payment of bonuses up to Rs.2000/-. The proposal is supported by the analogy of the law in force in British India in regard to the payment of sums standing at the credit of deceased subscribers to the Government or Railway Provident Fund.

The present Bill is intended to give effect to the recommendation of the Insurance Committee.

Bill to amend the Mysore State Life Insurance Regulation, 1917,

Whereas it is expedient to amend the Mysore State Life Insurance Regulation, 1917; His Highness the Maharaja is pleased to enact as follows :—

In Section 3 of the Regulation for the figure 'Rs. 1,000' the figure 'Rs. 2,000' shall be substituted. Amendment of Section 3.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

Under Regulation IV of 1917, the President of the State Life Insurance Committee is authorised to disburse to such person as he finds entitled after reasonable enquiry the bonus due to the estate of a deceased policy-holder without the production of a succession certificate, probate orletters of administration, when the amount payable does not exceed Rs. 1,000, as the insured in such cases are generally poor and the expense and delay of obtaining a certificate of heirship from a Court of Law would involve great hardship to their dependents. The Insurance Committee have recommended that this concession may be extended to the payment of bonuses up to Rs. 2,000. The proposal is supported by the analogy of the law in force in British India in regard to the payment of sums standing at the credit of deceased subscribers to the Government or Railway Provident Fund.

The present Bill is intended to give effect to the recommendation of the Insurance Committee.
